BUTTERFLY

INDEX

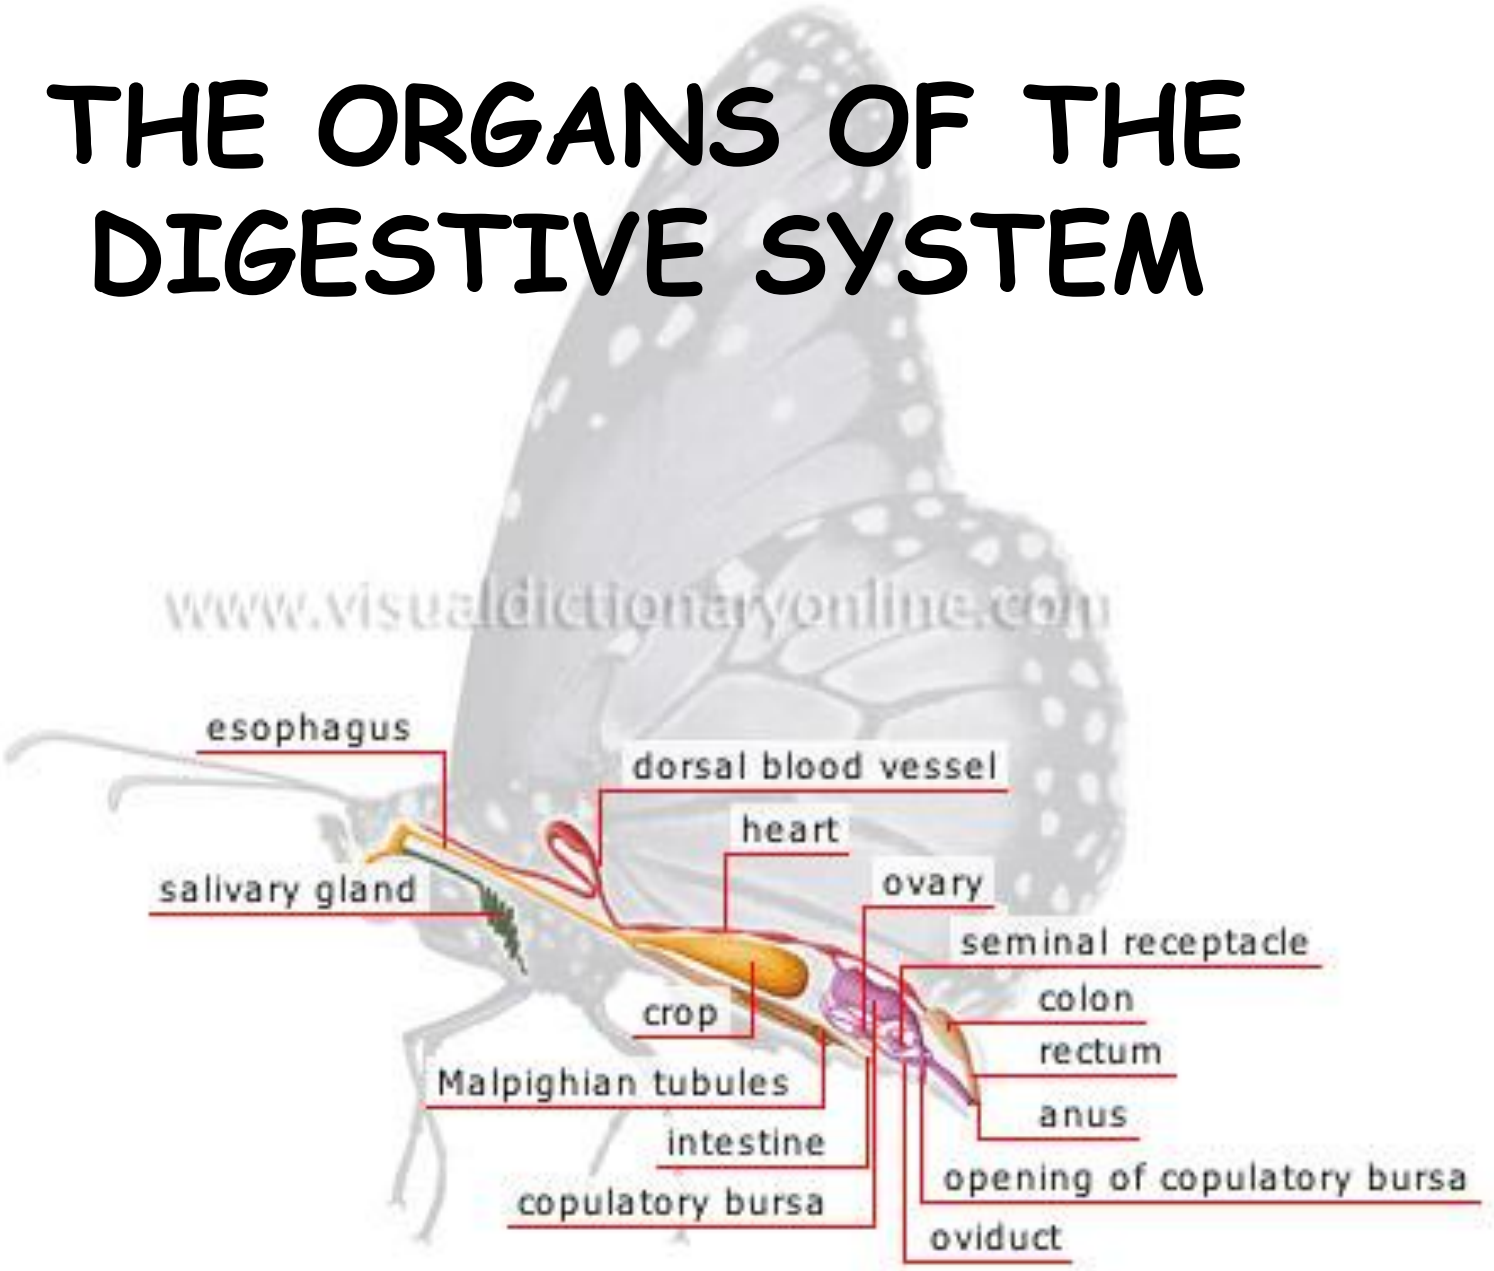
- Introduction
- Digestive system
- Respiratory system
- Circulatory system
- Excretory system

INTRODUCTION

- Are insects.
- A butterfly s lifecycle is made up of four parts.
- They leave between a week or a year depending of the species.
- They have four wings.
- They have bright colours.
- They feed on nectar from flowers.
- They have taste receptors on their feet.
- Between 15000 and 20000 species in the world

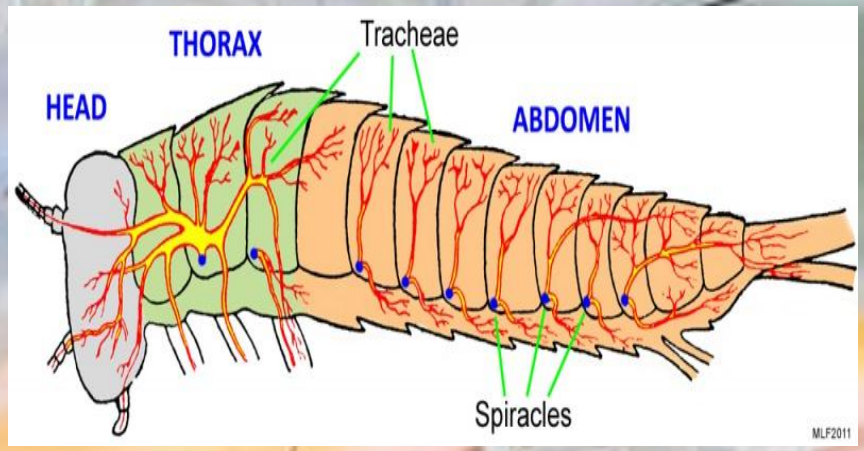
DIGESTIVE SYSTEM

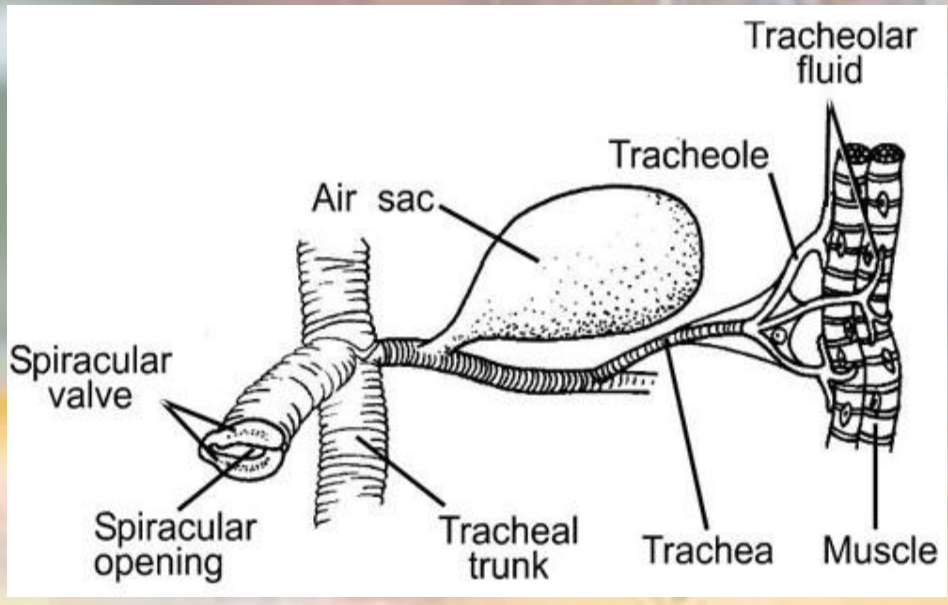
THE ORGANS OF THE DIGESTIVE SYSTEM



RESPIRATORY SYSTEM

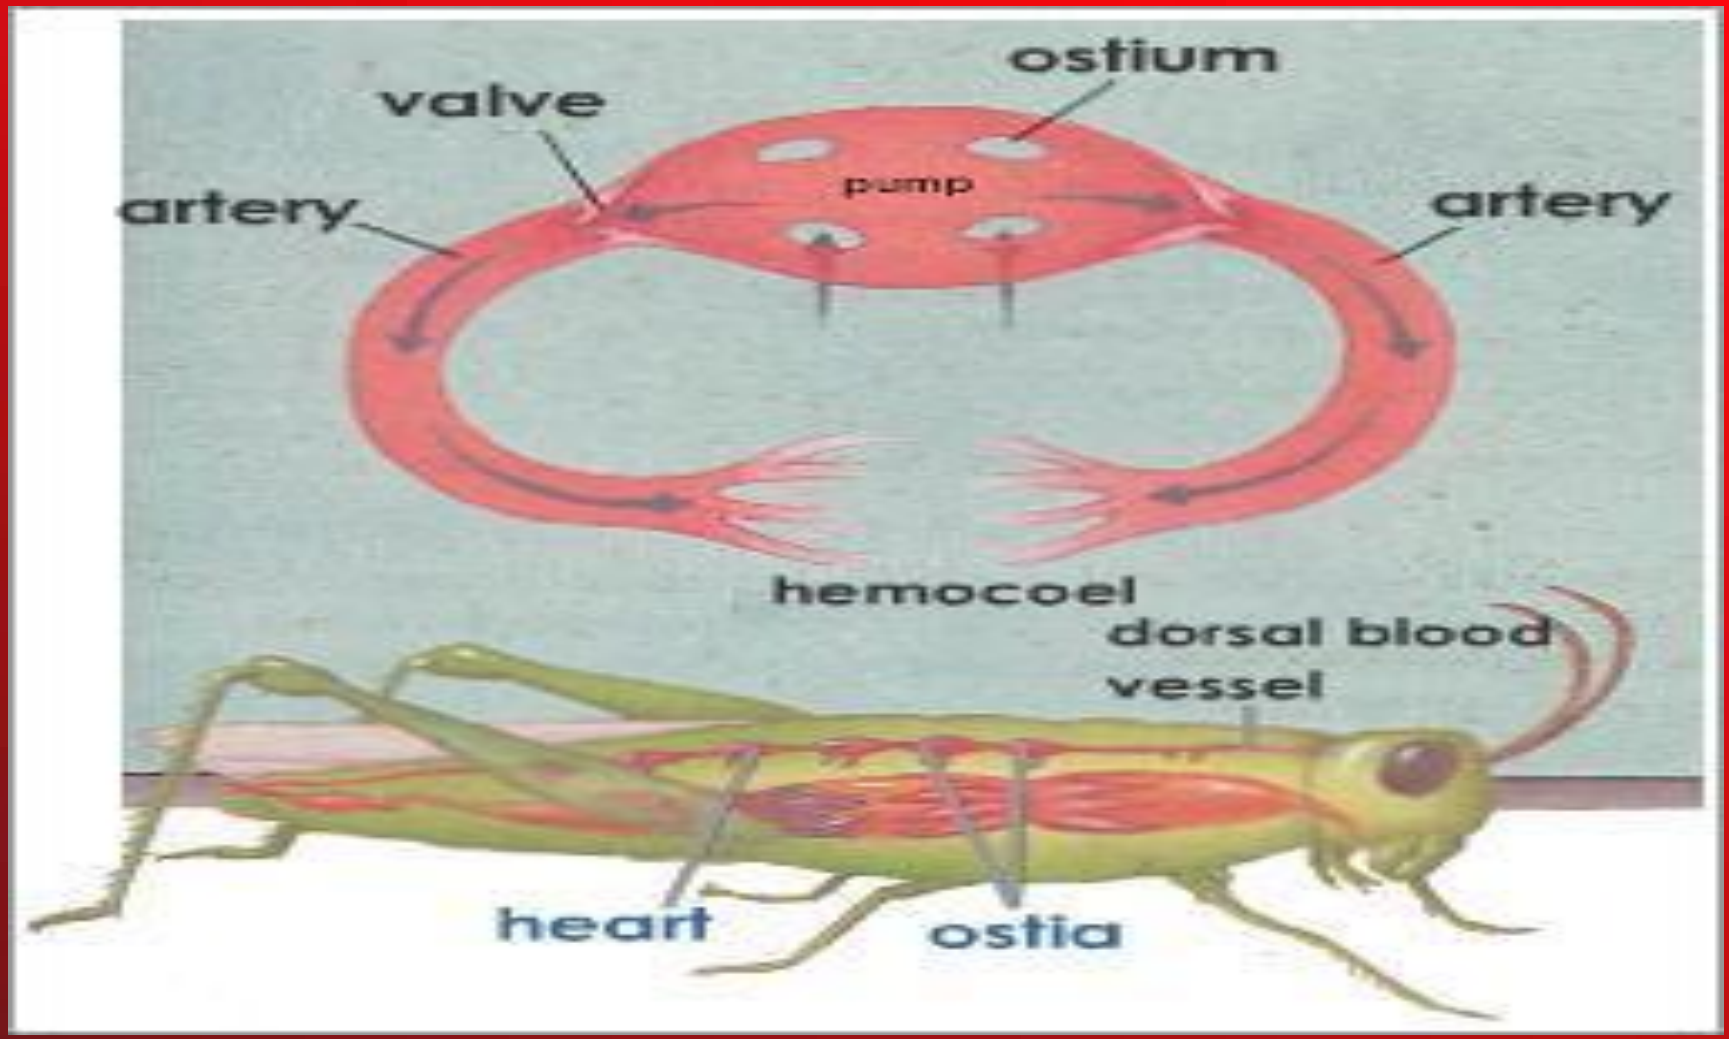
TRACHEAL RESPIRATION



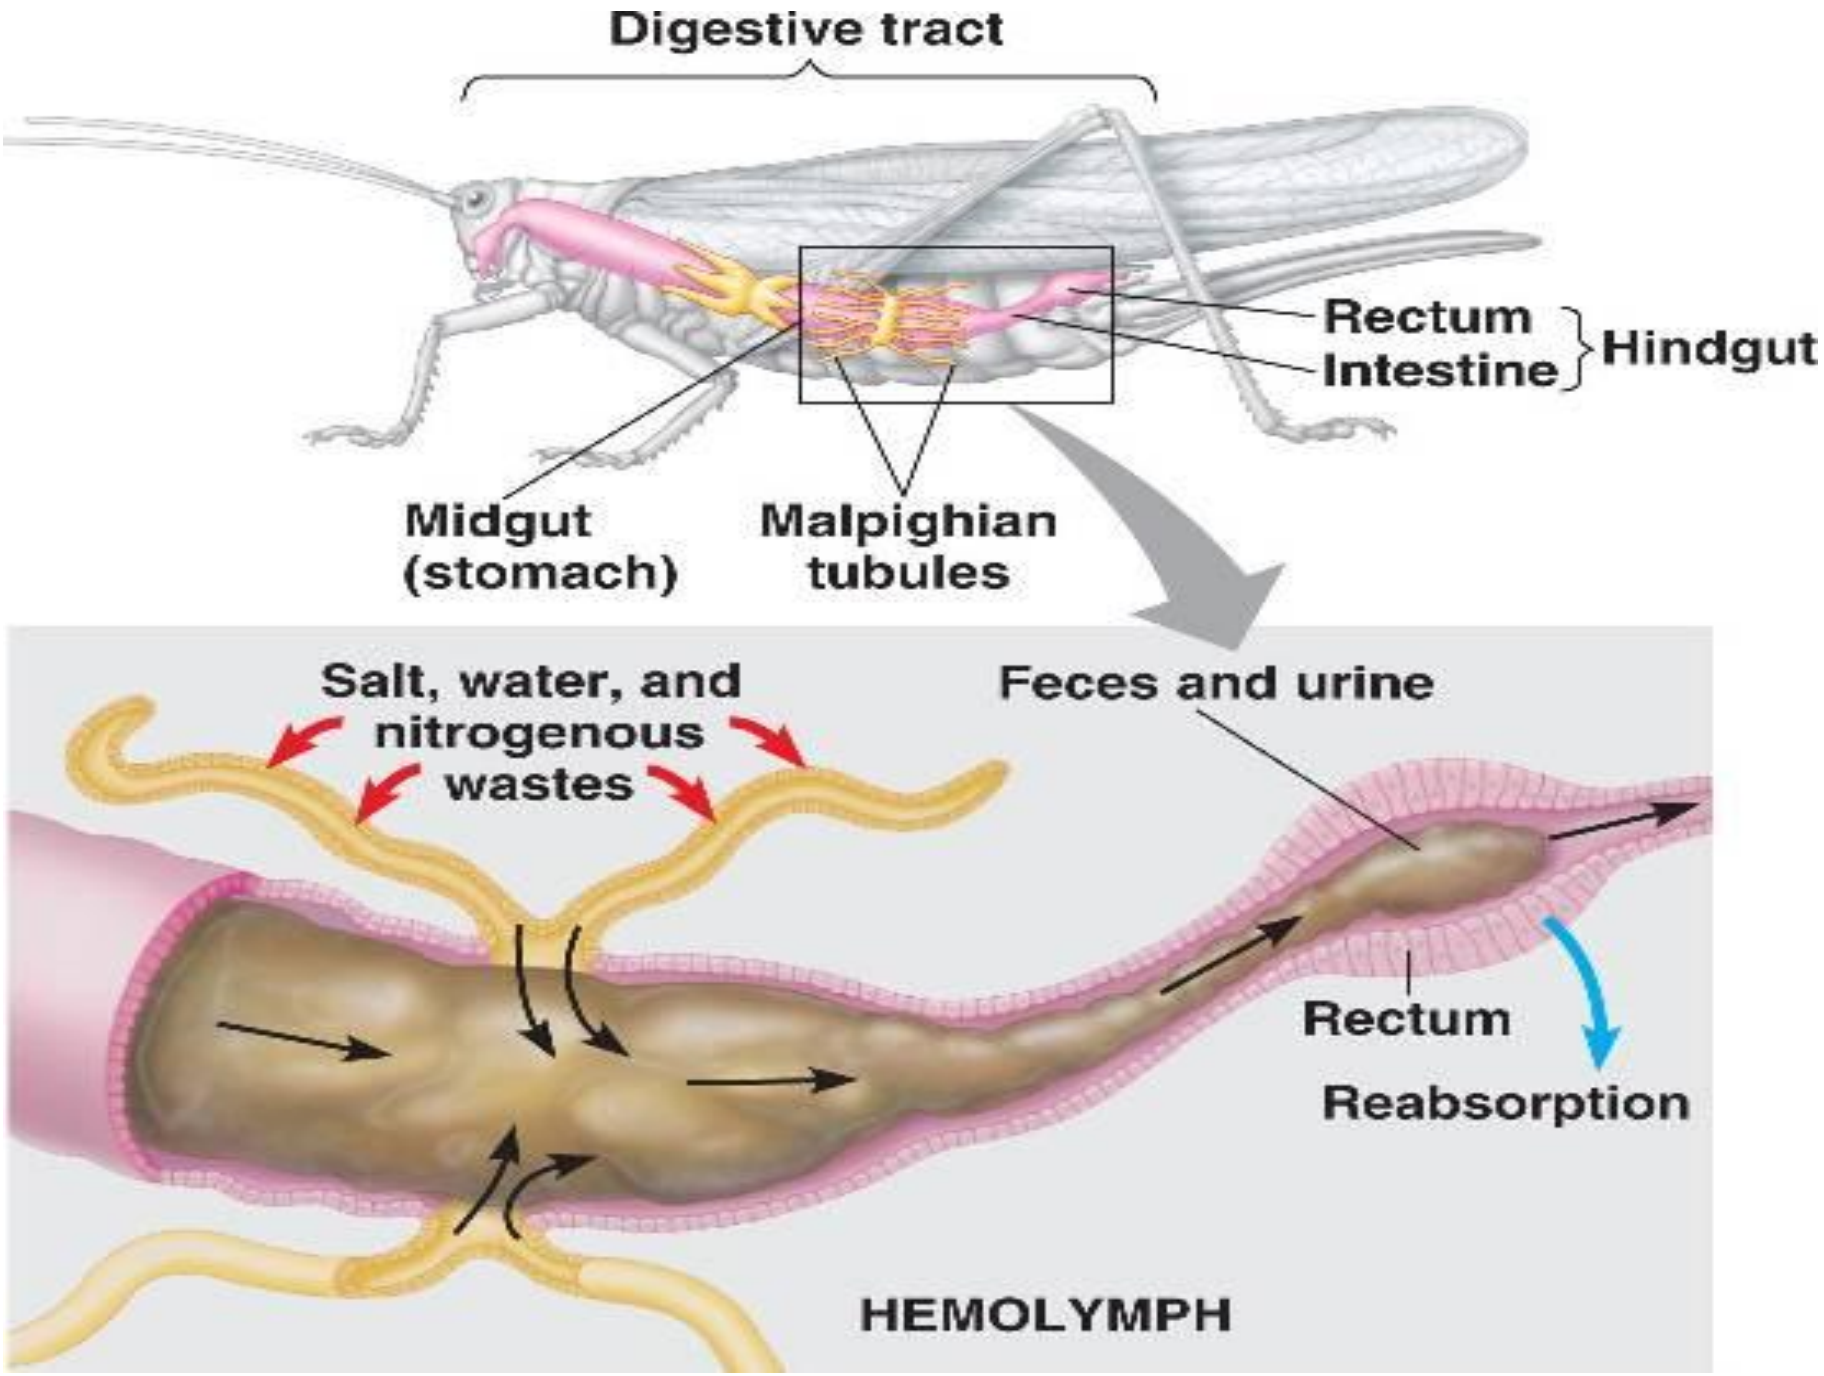


CIRCULATORY SYSTEM

OPEN CIRCULATORY SYSTEM



EXCRETORY SYSTEM



Digestive tract
Rectum
Intestine
Hindgut
Midgut
(stomach)
Malpighian
tubules
Salt, water, and nitrogenous wastes
Feces and urine
Rectum
Reabsorption
HEMOLYMPH

The End